

Legal and Financial Planning for the Special Needs Family

Are you looking ahead to the future?

Wednesday,
November
13th
7:00 p.m.

What can you do today to protect and ensure your child's access to governmental benefits, programs and services? How can you provide financially for your child to maximize their quality of life without jeopardizing these services? Have you completed your estate and special needs plan?

This seminar will guide you through the essentials of special needs planning, government benefits, ABLE accounts, and financial planning for the special needs family.
